

EDUCATION MINOR

General

Minimum courses required: 5, to include a minimum of one 300-level course

The General Education minor is for students who are interested in the field of education and in careers related to education, but who do not intend to student teach or to seek licensure in Massachusetts.

As many as two of the five required courses may be taken outside of the Education Department with permission from the Education coordinator.

Course requirements	Semester taken
----------------------------	-----------------------

1.
2.
3.
4.

ONE 300-level course:

5.
----	--	--

Education courses that may be used for the General Education Minor: (EDUC 385, 390 and 391 may NOT be taken for the General Education Minor)

EDUC 240: Multiple Perspectives on Literacy
EDUC 250: Schooling in America
EDUC 251: Special Education
EDUC 260: Teaching and Learning

EDUC 270: Adolescent Development
EDUC 275: Learning in the Social Sciences
EDUC 375: Issues in Early Care and Education

These three courses may be taken if a student has at least two prerequisites education courses and all three courses are by permission of the instructor:

EDUC 385: Teaching Math and Science
EDUC 390: Teaching Reading and Language Arts
EDUC 391: Secondary Curriculum

Courses outside the Education Department that may be counted for the General Minor include the following. Others may also be counted with the permission of a member of the department.

ENG 286: Children's Literature

PSY 203: Developmental Psychology
PSY 211: Learning and Memory
PSY 222: Cognition

PSY 232: Social Psychology
PSY 251: Multicultural Psychology
PSY 306: Infancy across Cultures

SOC 210: Inequality
SOC 230: Race and Ethnicity

SOC 235: Families in Transition
SOC 260: Gender Inequality