2001 WOMEN'S LACROSSE CHAMPIONSHIP - WHEATON HOLDS OFF TRINITY, 11-8 IN FIRST ROUND GAME

May 9, 2001

Wheaton freshman attack Lauren Maynes (Barnard, VT/Woodstock Union H.S.) posted a game-best six goals, including five of the hosts six second-half tallies, as the Lyons held off a Trinity comeback effort and captured an 11-8 victory in Wednesday's Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) first round contest at Keefe Field.

Senior co-captain Julia Lou (Collegetown, PA/Perkiomen Valley H.S.) recorded the game's first goal in the opening two minutes for an early 1-0 Wheaton advantage. Within a fourteen second span, the Bantams came back with two of their own off the sticks of junior midfielder Anna Sullivan (Bridgewater, VT/St. George's H.S.) and junior attack Ashley Taylor (Washington, DC/Maret H.S.). Maynes and Lou then combined for the contest's next three scores, giving the hosts a 4-2 advantage, with a pair of assists distributed from senior Paige Spence (Brookfield, CT/Canterbury Prep School). Each squad exchanged goals in the final eleven minutes of play, as Wheaton entered the half with a 5-3 lead.

The Lyons looked to put the game away early in the second frame with three consecutive goals in the first three minutes of play, as Lou and Maynes again joined forces, which included two free-position conversions. Sullivan and the Bantams maintained their composure, cutting the margin to 8-5 as Sullivan recorded her fourth goal of the game. Maynes added her fourth tally four minutes later, extending the difference to four goals with 17:02 on the clock. Despite Katelyn Bowman's (Summit,NJ/Summit H.S.) three-goal effort for Trinity in the final eight minutes of regulation, Maynes landed a pair more as the Lyons held off a Bantam comeback in the closing minutes.

Lou finished the contest with four goals for the victors, while goalkeeper Andrea Christoforou (Exeter, NH/Phillips Exeter Academy) continued to shine in net with nine saves on the day. Junior goalie Kelly Joe Burnett (Pennington, NJ/Peddie School) stopped three Wheaton shots in the loss.

WOMEN'S LACROSSE LANDS ECAC TOURNAMENT BID; SET TO HOST TRINITY COLLEGE IN OPENING ROUND

May 7, 2001

The Wheaton College women's lacrosse team has earned the number-four seed and right to host a first round game in the 2001 Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Tournament. The Lyons will entertain fifth-seeded Trinity College on Wednesday, May 9 at 4:30 p.m.

Wheaton finished regular season play in second place behind Wellesley College in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC). At the conference tournament, the Lyons defeated MIT, 11-8 in the opening round and then fell to Springfield College, 12-10 in the semifinal game at Wellesley.

The Blue was the only league team to qualify for the NCAA Championship, as they went on to claim the conference tournament title with a victory over the Pride. Springfield was also awarded a bid to the ECAC Tournament. Amassing an 11-5 mark on the season, Wheaton will look to avenge an early season 10-9 loss to Trinity. Currently 8-7, the Bantams are one of five New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC) teams represented in the single elimination event.

A strong balance of offense and defense will be featured for the host Lyons, as NEWMAC Rookie-of-the-Year selection, Lauren Maynes (Barnard, VT/Woodstock Union H.S.) will be surrounded by a talented senior all-conference cast consisting of midfielder Julia Lou (Collegeville, PA/Perkiomen Valley H.S.), attack Paige Spence (Brookfield, CT/Canterbury Prep School) and goalkeeper Andrea Christoforou (Exeter, NH/Phillips Exeter Academy).

Posting solid numbers across the board, Lou is impressive on both sides of the ball, as she ranks among the nation's elite on a per-game basis in caused turnovers (4th), draw controls (9th) and ground balls (14th). Offensively, she placed sixth in the conference in goals (43) with a 2.69 average and ninth in assists (13) at 0.81 per game. Another offensive threat is Maynes, who is among the top three league leaders for points (70) and goals (62), as she was second in goals with 3.88 per game and third in total points with a 4.38 per outing average. In addition to her conference standing, Maynes was first on the team in free position shot accuracy (.458, 11-24), second in caused turnovers (30), third in ground balls (51) and fourth in draw controls (12).

Spence took the league's sixth spot in assists (15) per game at 0.94, while ranking third on the team in scoring (42 points). Christoforou positioned herself second in the NEWMAC in goals against average (8.92 gpg) and save percentage (.596), starting in 15 of 16 games for the Lyons. As a team, Wheaton was seventh nationally in caused turnovers per contest at 15.94, second in the conference in scoring defense, allowing 8.9 goals per game and third in total offense with 11.3 goals each outing.

The highest-seeded team hosts the first round games in the ECAC Tournament, while the highest remaining seed after Wednesday's games will host the semifinals and finals on Saturday, May 12 and Sunday, May 13. Following are the other three first round games this Wednesday, set to begin at 4:00.

- #1 Williams College (9-2) vs. #8 New England College (11-1)
- #2 Colby College (9-4) vs. #7 Bates College (9-7)
- #3 Tufts University (8-6) vs. #6 Springfield College (11-5)

The first-year midfielder helped pace the Lyons to an 11-5 overall record, including a 5-1 mark in conference play and second place finish in the regular season. Wheaton reached the semifinal round of the tournament at Wellesley College, before falling to Springfield College. Despite falling out of NCAA Championship contention, Wheaton maintains its postseason hopes on a strong possibility of qualifying for the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Tournament.

Maynes ranked among the top three league leaders offensively for points (70) and goals (62), as she was second in goals with 3.88 per game and third in total points with a 4.38 per outing average. Lou finished the regular season with a balanced effort between goals and assists, ranking sixth in the NEWMAC in goals (43) with 2.69 per game and ninth in assists (13) at 0.81 per contest. Lou was tops on the team in ground balls (91), caused turnovers (64) and draw controls (51).

Spence chimed in at the league's sixth spot in assists (15) per game at 0.94, while ranking third on the team in scoring (42 points). Christoforou, who was the only netminder to be named to the team, positioned herself second in the NEWMAC in both goals against average (8.92 gpg) and save percentage (.596), starting in 15 of 16 games for the Lyons.

As a team, Wheaton posted multiple-game winning streaks throughout the regular season, including winning four of its opening five contests. The Blue and White's only loss came at the hands of Division I Marist College. In team statistics for the NEWMAC, the Lyons were second in scoring defense, allowing 8.9 goals per game and third in offense with 11.3 goals per outing.

The Pioneer attack was spearheaded by senior Amanda Edelhart (San Francisco, CA/Concord Academy) and freshman Hadley Gerhardt (Chester Springs, PA/Westtown H.S.).

Although Wheaton would not be denied, as the Lyons took a turn in holding the visitors scoreless, while recording four of the contest's final five goals, led by three scores from senior co-captain Julia Lou (Collegeville, PA/Perkiomen Valley H.S.). Lou finished the outing with five goals and sophomore Anne Gill (Norfolk, CT/Miss Porter's School) added two to capture the victory. ## MAYNES COLLECTS NEWMAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK AWARD

April 16, 2001

Women's lacrosse standout Lauren Maynes (Barnard, VT/Woodstock Union H.S.) turned in a spectacular week for Wheaton, as she was awarded the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Player of the Week selection for the week ending on April 15.

Maynes scored 16 goals and dished out two assists in three games for the Lyons. The first-year attack tallied six goals and picked up five groundballs in a critical conference win over Babson, and then scored four times in a one-goal loss to Trinity. Maynes finished the week with an outstanding performance against NEWMAC rival Springfield, as she recorded six goals, two assists, six groundballs, three caused turnovers and a pair of draw controls in a huge 13-11 overtime victory.

After dropping its opening league game to first-place Wellesley, Wheaton has strung together three consecutive conference wins, while retaining sole possession of second place in the NEWMAC, thanks to the win over previously unbeaten Springfield. The Pride were 3-0 prior to Saturday's contest in Norton.

For the season, Maynes has started in all ten of Wheaton's games while positioning herself among the league leaders in two offensive scoring categories, including tops in goals per game with a 4.00 per game average (40 goals) and second in total points per outing at 4.40 (40 goals, 4 assists). In addition to her conference rankings, Maynes is second on the team in free position accuracy (.357, 5-for-14) and shot percentage (.455, 40-for-88), tied for second in caused turnovers (19) and third in groundballs (32). Offensively, she has tallied an impressive three goals or more in nine games this season, including hitting six scores on three occasions.

Entering the week, the Lyons have posted a mark of 7-3 overall and 3-1 in conference play. They have won three of their last four contests and four of five outings at Keefe Field. The Wheaton women as a squad are second in the NEWMAC in scoring offense, averaging 11.9 goals per game and third in team defense, giving up 7.6 goals per contest.

Maynes and the Blue & White will look to make it four straight conference victories, as the Lyons challenge MIT in Cambridge this Tuesday in a night contest set to begin at 6:00 p.m.

In a game where offensive streaks were prominent between both squads, the Wheaton College women's lacrosse team posted the game's final three goals, including two in the six-minute overtime session by senior midfielder Paige Spence (Brookfield, CT/Canterbury Prep School), as the Lyons edged Springfield College, 13-11 in New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) action at Keefe Field.

Winners of three consecutive league games, Wheaton improves to 3-1 in the conference, while in the process snapping the Pride's three-game streak, dropping their mark to 3-1 and 6-3 overall. For the season, the Blue & White are 7-3.

Wheaton wasted no time scoring from the game's outset, with freshman attack Lauren Maynes (Barnard, VT/Woodstock Union H.S.) placing her first shot into the back of the net just 31 seconds into the contest. The Lyons extended their lead to 2-0 on Spence's opening score. Springfield fought back with two goals of its own, before the victors converted on their third goal again from Spence, whom finished with four goals on the afternoon. Bouncing back with two additional goals, Springfield took its first lead with 19:08 on the clock, thanks to sophomore Lindsay Reiniger's (Rochester, NY/Mercy H.S.) second tally. However, the hosts came back strong with three consecutive scores and a 6-4 cushion. The Pride added a goal in the closing minutes to narrow the gap to 6-5 at the intermission.

Springfield opened up the second period offensive-minded, regaining a 7-6 advantage before Wheaton battled back for the tying goal. Once again the Blue & White strung together a trio of goals consecutively en route to their 9-7 advantage with 16:05 to play. The Pride's Danica Ansardy (Woodstock, VT/Woodstock Union H.S.) then converted on two quick goals within a minute's span for the game's sixth knot at nine apiece. Following Maynes' fifth goal of the game, Ansardy answered with her third straight and a 10-10 deadlock. Junior Kim Dole (Old Chatham, NY/Chatham H.S.) then put Springfield ahead 11-10 with 6:50 to play, but Maynes prevailed with her sixth goal of the contest to send the game into the extra session. Reserve goalie Michelle Siegal (Newton, MA/Newton North H.S.) shined in net for the final eight minutes of regulation, stopping several key shots down the stretch.

On Tuesday, April 17, the Wheaton women will look to make it two in a row in the conference, as the Lyons challenge MIT in an evening contest set to begin at 6:00 p.m.
