1999- 2000 SEASON SUMMARY

Often times, people believe that some of the best kept secrets are secrets that are kept within, and that sentiment seemed to hold true for the Wheaton College women's soccer team, as they shocked the soccer world finishing their monumental season as Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Champions after surpassing all expectation's with the third highest winning percentage in the country (92%) at 23-2-0 and a final national ranking of 22nd.

The Lyons completed the most successful regular season in their 20-year history, winning 18 out of their 19 games played, while earning much-deserved rankings of seventh in the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA)/Adidas NCAA Division III National Poll and first in the New England Regional Poll.

"We attained various goals that we set out to accomplish before the season," said NSCAA New England Division III Regional Coach of the Year Luis Reis. We had a fantastic season even though we fell short of our # 1 ultimate goal of earning a bid into the NCAA National Tournament. Nevertheless, we are proud of the fact that we are the ECAC Regional Champions, we finished with a record of 23-2-0 and we were ranked # 7 in the country in the final regular season national poll as well as being ranked # 1 in the New England Region."

Entering the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Tournament as regular season conference champions with a perfect 8-0 record and a #1 seed, as the Lyons avenged last year's loss to Wellesley College with a 1-0 win in their final regular season home contest, Wheaton eliminated Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) and Smith College in the quarterfinal and semifinal rounds, respectively. These two victories led to a highly anticipated rematch between Wellesley and the Lyons, with the victor receiving an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament due to the New England Region switching from a rankings system to an automatic bid system. Unfortunately for Wheaton, Wellesley received the bid with a 1-0 decision in the conference finals, and Bowdoin College accepted the at-large bid in the region.

The ever-so-quiet Lyons team began their season taking the New England Region by storm, winning their first 10 games by an unprecedented total of 39 goals to the opposition's lone two. Following a tight 2-1 loss in double overtime to non-conference opponent Colby College, Wheaton quickly bounced back and reeled off another 10 straight wins, this time outscoring their opponents by a 24-4 margin. The winning streak came to a halt though, as Wellesley was able to squeak by the blue and white to win the conference tournament. But as they did earlier in the season, the Lyons never-say-die attitude turned in a heroic effort knocking off three straight teams at home, including victories over Bates College, Clark University and NCAA candidate Middlebury College, while granting them their first ever ECAC crown. For the year, the team tallied 68 goals scored (2.72/game) and allowed only 10 goals (0.39/game), a mark good enough for ninth in the country for team defense.

"Our players displayed an incredible amount of resilience throughout the season," added Reis, who also was selected as the New England Women's Intercollegiate Soccer Association (NEWISA) Division III Coach of the Year. They put together two winning streaks of 10 games in a row, overcame many, many injuries and proved critics that we are for real. I am proud of my players. They played with great confidence and were a very determined group. They represented our women's soccer program and Wheaton College with class and style. They played with passion."

Contributing to the success of Reis' all-around team effort was the fact they were more experienced with nine starters returning and a very strong recruiting class. NEWMAC Rookie-of-the-Year forward Alison Bimba (Etna, NH/Williston-N'Hampton H.S.) led the Lyons in scoring before suffering a knee injury in the first round of the conference tournament. She compiled astounding numbers of 58 points in 20 games, which included a conference-best 22 goals and team-high 14 assists. Her 2.9 points per game average ranked her 17th in the country in scoring. This freshman phenom was awarded NSCAA Division III All-American Third Team accolades, and New England All-Regional and NEWISA All-New England Regional First Team honors. She also was selected to the NEWMAC All-Conference Team. Bimba earned NEWMAC Player-of-the-Week selections five times this season, the exact number of game-winning goals she added in the Lyons triumphs.

In addition to Bimba, Wheaton had an array of talent on both the offensive and defensive sides of the ball, as an unheard of nine players posted double-figure scoring. Sophomore forwards Julie Hickey (Weymouth, MA/Weymouth H.S.) and Michelle Crow (Kensington, CT/Berlin H.S.) ranked among the New England Region in scoring with Hickey posting 12 goals and five assists for 29 total points and Crow tallying six goals and 13 assists for 25 points. Freshman playmaker Courtney Linden (Piedmont, CA/Piedmont H.S.), who distributed the ball for 12 assists with three goals and 18 points, played in only 18 games due to a leg injury. Despite her minor setback, Linden was selected to the NSCAA New England All-Regional Third Team.

Wheaton also relied on its strong defensive core led by two-year captain, junior Chrissy Chase (Weymouth, MA/Weymouth H.S.), who was tied for fifth on the team in scoring with sophomore forward Kathleen Burke (Quincy, MA/Notre Dame Academy) at 17 points apiece. Chase was selected to the NEWISA All-New England Regional Second Team and was a member of the NEWMAC All-Conference Team. Rounding out the Wheaton double-digit scoring were sophomore midfielders Briana Ferris (Springfield, MA/Cathedral H.S.) and Lucy Campbell (Anson, ME/Carrabec H.S.) and freshman forward Maija Kaldro (Bar Harbor, ME/Mt. Desert Island H.S.).

The defense this year was anchored by returning starter and sophomore goalkeeper Emily Boeing (Sudbury, MA/Lincoln-Sudbury H.S.). She recorded 17 shutouts in 25 games, which ranked 10th in the country while only giving up 10 goals all year for a 0.39 goal per contest average, which also stood at the #10 spot nationally. Boeing had quite a supporting cast in front of her with defensive back and three-year starter Lisa Wallin (Lebanon, NH/Lebanon H.S.), as well as sophomore backs Mariah Herbst (Holden, MA/Wachusett H.S.) and Becky Donahue (W. Springfield, MA/W. Springfield H.S.).

If the future success of the Wheaton women holds true to form with the return of 21 of 22 players, then the squad that brings back nine sophomores, eight freshman and four juniors, every member of the team with the exception of lone senior April Dingwell (Brockton, MA/Brockton H.S.), will certainly be in the hunt for what rightly was missed this year, an opportunity to compete for an NCAA Division III Women's Soccer National Championship.

Coach Reis, who owns a 49-14-2 record in three years at Wheaton while surpassing 100 career coaching wins this season, summed up an unforgettable year, "The improved play of the returning players, the addition of the freshman, our new formation, our new attitude, our team chemistry, our constant focus on reaching new team goals and the leadership of our captains were all key ingredients of our success in 1999."

November 7, 1999

The first-seeded Wheaton College Lyons women's soccer team won the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) New England Championships with a 1-0 win over the third-seeded Middlebury College Panthers this afternoon at Keefe Field. The Lyons finish their season with a 23-2 final record while Middlebury finishes their year with a 12-4 mark.

Wheaton got its lone goal off a corner kick late in the first half. Junior Christine Chase (Weymouth, MA/ Weymouth H.S.) headed in the corner kick by Michelle Crowe (Kensington, CT/ Berlin H.S.) at the 43:25 mark.

In the second half, Middlebury put a lot of pressure on the Lyons, but could not score on goalkeeper Emily Boeing (Sudbury, MA/ Lincoln-Sudbury Regional H.S.) who had four second half saves and six in the game. Boeing recorded her 17th shutout of the season. Middlebury goalkeeper Ali Connolly (Marblehead, MA) had two saves in the losing effort.

After the game, junior co-captain Christine Chase was named the ECAC Tournament MVP. Chase scored the game-winning goal in today's match, and also anchored the Lyons defense that only allowed one goal in the tournament.

WHEATON WOMEN'S SOCCER BEATS CLARK 2-1 IN OVERTIME; WILL HOST ECAC FINAL TOMORROW

November 6, 1999

The first-seeded Wheaton College Lyons women's soccer team defeated the fifth-seeded Clark University Cougars 2-1 today in overtime at Elms Field in the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Championships semi-finals. The Lyon's will now go on and host the third-seeded Middlebury College Panthers, who won their semi-final match 2-1 in overtime versus the second-seeded Amherst College Lord Jeffs this morning. The ECAC final will be played Sunday, November 7th at 1:00pm at Wheaton. With today's victory Wheaton improves its overall record to 22-2, while Clarks finishes its season at 12-6-2.

Clark started off the scoring early with a goal from Tara Doyle (Hanover, MA), assisted from Katie Brothers (Dudley, MA) at the 5:34 mark.

Wheaton would get the equalizing goal at the 75:31 mark on a goal by Julie Hickey (Weymouth, MA/Weymouth H.S.), assisted by Michelle Crowe (Kensington, CT/ Berlin H.S.). Crowe set up the goal with a crossing pass to Hickey, who then pushed the ball past her defender and fired a shot. Clark goalkeeper Alyson Parrish (West Springfield, MA) got a hand on the shot but could not stop the ball from crossing the goal line. No one scored for the rest of regulation play, sending the game into overtime.

Wheaton dominated the extra session. After having several scoring chances in overtime, sophomore Brianna Ferris (Springfield, MA/ Cathedral H.S.) would give Wheaton the game-winning goal at the 102:33 mark. The goal came off a corner kick, in which Wheaton had a shot blocked by a Clark defender and Ferris picked up the rebound and put it in the back of the net to give the Lyons the victory.

WHEATON WOMEN'S SOCCER EDGES BATES IN ECAC, WIN 1-0 IN OVERTIME AND ADVANCE TO SEMIFINALS

November 3, 1999

The Wheaton College women's soccer team needed an extra period of play to defeat Bates College 1-0 today in the first round of the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Championships. The Lyons advance to the semifinals round on Saturday, November 6 at 1:00 p.m., as they will host fourth-seeded and New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) foe Clark University, who defeated Tufts University 2-1 today in Medford, MA.

With today's victory, Wheaton improved their overall record to 21-2 while the Bobcats suffered their sixth defeat of the year falling to 8-6-1.

The two squads went scoreless throughout regulation play and with only two minutes remaining in sudden-death overtime sophomore Julie Hickey (Weymouth, MA/Weymouth H.S.) lofted her game-winning shot over the stretching arms of Bates goalie Kim Martell (Needleham, MA). Junior Chrissy Chase (Weymouth, MA/Weymouth H.S.) delivered a free kick for the Lyons as Hickey received the pass and directed a header over Martell but to a Bobcat defender, who headed the ball back to the waiting foot of Hickey.

Wheaton goalkeeper Emily Boeing (Lincoln, MA/Lincoln-Sudbury H.S.) recorded her 16th shutout of the season, as she posted seven saves off of Bates' 11 shots on goal. Entering today's contest, Boeing held a NCAA Division III standing of 10th in percentage of shutouts with a .68 average as well as a .40 goals against average. Martell had four saves in goal for the Bobcats in the loss.

The Lyons, who are the number-one seeded team in the ECAC, have already defeated the Cougars of Clark University earlier this year by a final of 3-1 in Worcester, MA.

WOMEN'S SOCCER EARNS HIGHEST SEED IN ECAC TOURNAMENT, WILL HOST BATES COLLEGE IN FIRST ROUND

November 2, 1999

The 1999 Wheaton College women's soccer team has earned the number-one seed in this year's Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Women's Soccer Championship, as they will host the eighth-seeded Bates College Bobcats this Wednesday, November 3 at Elms field beginning at 1:30 p.m.

The Lyons, who finished regular season play with rankings of 1st in New England and 7th in NCAA Division III, advanced to the championship game of the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Tournament with win's over Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) and Smith College, before bowing out to Wellesley College 1-0 this past Sunday. In only their second loss all season, the Lyons were not selected for the NCAA Tournament, as Wellesley received an automatic bid for winning the conference outright while Bowdoin College was given the sole at-large bid in the New England Region.

Wheaton, the only undefeated team in the NEWMAC this year at 8-0, is entering this first round contest with an overall mark of 20-2 while the Bobcats, who compete in the New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC), come into the game at 8-5-1.

This year marks the third consecutive season that the Lyons have qualified for the ECAC Tournament, as they were selected in 1998 as the second-seeded team and in 1997 as the fifth seed. At 13-7 last year, Wheaton defeated Anna Maria College 4-1 on its home turf, but then fell to upcoming opponent Bates College 2-1 in the semifinal round at Babson College. In 1997, the Lyons (13-5-2) faced fourth seed Connecticut College in the opening round and were defeated 1-0 in double overtime in New London, CT.

The highest-seeded team hosts the first round games in the ECAC Tournament, while the highest remaining seed after Wednesday's games will host the semifinals and finals rounds on Saturday, November 6 and Sunday, November 7. In addition to the Wheaton vs. Bates contest, following are the other three first round games this Wednesday:

- #2 Amherst College vs. #7 Colby College
- #3 Middlebury College vs. #6 Keene St. College
- #4 Tufts University vs. #5 Clark University

WOMEN'S SOCCER OUTLASTS WPI, WIN 3-2 IN NEWMAC QUARTERFINAL GAME

October 28, 1999

The Wheaton College women's soccer team tallied the first three goals of its contest en route to a 3-2 victory over Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) in today's New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Tournament quarterfinal game. The win advances the Lyons to the semifinals this Saturday, October 30 at WPI in Worcester, MA, as they will face the fifth-seeded Smith College Pioneers, who defeated Babson 2-1 today in Wellesley, MA.

With today's win, Wheaton recorded its ninth consecutive victory while raising its overall record to 18-1. The Engineers suffered their twelfth defeat of the season as they finished 7-12 on the year.

The contest was held scoreless for the first 27 minutes of play until the Lyons Kathleen Burke (Quincy, MA/No. Quincy H.S.) opened up the scoring gates with a six-yard strike dead on and over the reaching arms of WPI goalie Brooke LeClaire (Acton, MA). Wheaton wasted no time extending its lead as Alison Bimba (Etna, NH/Williston-N'Hampton H.S.) used several nifty moves to blow by two Engineers' defenders on the end line before blasting a shot off the far post. The ball bounced back to the waiting foot of Briana Ferris (Springfield, MA/Cathedral H.S.), who tucked her shot past LeClaire for her second goal in as many games and a 2-0 Wheaton advantage.

The Lyons carried their momentum into the second half when Bimba managed to get free in the penalty box, as she shot the ball dead center off LeClaire's diving foot save. Ashley Stewart (New Braintree, MA/Quabbin H.S.) received the return deflection and buried her shot to the bottom right corner of the net for her second goal of the season.

The lead was not relinquished as the Lyons held off a late-game surge from WPI that saw them connect on two quick goals in the 82nd and 88th minutes. Beth Gilbert (Killingly, CT) drove a 30-yard blast over the head of Wheaton keeper Emily Boeing (Sudbury, MA/ Lincoln-Sudbury H.S.) while Mandy Koski scored off a cross from Jen Patoulidis (Saugus, MA).

THREE WHEATON TEAMS HEADED FOR POST-SEASON PLAY

October 27, 1999

Three of Wheaton's fall sports teams are headed to tournament play as the regular season winds down, with one team, women's soccer, also having won a national ranking during a phenomenal regular season. men's soccer and field hockey have also earned bids to compete for the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) championship and a berth in their respective NCAA Division III tournaments.

Ranked seventh in the nation, Wheaton women's soccer enters the post-season as the top-ranked team in the NEWMAC conference and the top-ranked team in New England. The Wheaton squad takes its 18-1 regular season record into the NEWMAC quarter-finals on Thursday, Oct. 28 against Worcester Polytechnic Institute (7-11), which defeated Mt. Holyoke in first-round action on Tuesday, Oct. 26.

The field hockey team, which defeated MIT on Tuesday, Oct. 26 in the first round of the NEWMAC championship, is slated to face Springfield College (16-3) on Thursday, Oct. 28. Wheaton lost to Springfield 2-1 in the team's final regular season contest.

With one game left, the men's soccer team (12-3-1) has also assured itself of NEWMAC tournament play, but its berth in the tourney will be decided on Saturday, Oct. 30, when they face Springfield College (11-5) in the last game of the regular season.

WHEATON MEN'S SOCCER ROLLS OVER COLBY-SAWYER

October 19, 1999

The Wheaton College men's soccer team beat Colby-Sawyer College 3-1 in a non-conference game this afternoon, as they improved their overall record to 9-3-1, including 3-1 in conference play. The Chargers fell to 5-8-2 in the loss.

Wheaton jumped out to an early lead in the 7th minute on a goal by Jeremy Hancock (Dallas, TX/ Lake Highlands H.S), which was assisted by Dan Antoniuk (Philadelphia, PA/ Central H.S). The Lyons then increased their lead with a goal by Tony Catalano (Peoria, AZ/ Peoria H.S) off of an assist from John Schlieman (Honolulu, HI/ Lolani). Colby-Sawyer bounced back with an unassisted goal of its own by Mike Feliuch in the 37th minute to put the Chargers within one.

In the second half, the Lyons put the game away on a goal by David Wurm (Dunstable, MA/ Groton-Dunstable Regional H.S), which was distributed from Hancock.

The Wheaton team will be back in action this Thursday, October 21, as they welcome Bridgewater St. University in a non-conference contest, beginning at 3:00 p.m.

WHEATON SOCCER OUTDUELS WPI 4-1

October 9, 1999

Wheaton junior Christine Chase (Weymouth, MA/Weymouth H.S.) scored the eventual game-winning goal with 1:00 remaining in the first half as the Lyons rebounded from a 1-0 deficit to upend WPI 4-1 in conference play today. Wheaton posts an overall record of 13-1, including a perfect 4-0 in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC). WPI fell to 4-9 in the loss.

The contest was held scoreless for the majority of the opening half until Engineers' forward Jamie Szafarowicz (Oakam, MA) struck first in the 37th minute for an early 1-0 lead. The Lyons wasted no time countering WPI's attack as they marched down the field and saw Julie Hickey (Weymouth, MA/Weymouth H.S.) tuck her shot past goalie Brooke LeClaire (Acton, MA) in the 38th minute.

Wheaton carried their momentum to the end of the half when Chase blasted a penalty kick shot off the cross bar, but then received the return header from sophomore Lucy Campbell (Anson, ME/Carrabec H.S.) as Chase finished the scoring play off of her header for the 2-1 advantage.

The lead was not relinquished as the Lyons scored twice more in the second half for added insurance. Hickey, who has scored three goals in her past two outings, connected on a Chase pass past an Engineer defender for her second goal of the game. Freshman Alison Bimba (Etna, NH/Williston -N'Hampton H.S.) then took advantage of an empty net in 87th minute as Engineer keeper LeClaire was attempting to shield a goal line pass from freshman Majja Kaldro (Bar Harbor, ME/Mt. Desert Island H.S.).

The Lyons will continue NEWMAC play on Tuesday, October 12, as they take to the road to face Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) beginning at 4:00 p.m.

WOMEN'S SOCCER BEATS CONNECTICUT 2-0

October 7, 1999

Wheaton sophomore Julie Hickey (Weymouth, MA/Weymouth H.S.) scored the eventual game-winning goal in the 64th minute of play as the Lyons beat Connecticut College 2-0 in non-conference action on Thursday afternoon. With the win, Wheaton moves to 12-1 overall and remains 3-0 in the NEWMAC. The Camels fall to 4-5 in the defeat.

Hickey one-timed her shot past Connecticut goalkeeper Amanda Baltzley (Bloomfield Hills, MI) from just inside the penalty box to give the Lyons a 1-0 lead. She received the pass on a cross from freshman Alison Bimba (Etna, NH/Williston -N'Hampton H.S.).

The Camels maintained pressure on the Lyons' defense throughout the game, but fullback Christine Chase (Weymouth, MA/Weymouth H.S.) and goalkeeper Emily Boeing (Sudbury, MA/Lincoln-Sudbury H.S.) made key saves to keep their team within striking distance.

Wheaton put the game out of reach in the 77th minute when sophomore forward Michelle Crowe (Kensington, CT/Berlin H.S.) sent a solid pass past a Camel defender that found Bimba streaking to the net. Bimba then made the strike for her team-best 16th goal of the season to give the Lyons a decisive 2-0 victory.

WHEATON SOCCER SUFFERS FIRST SETBACK, LOSE TO COLBY IN DOUBLE OVERTIME

October 2, 1999

The Wheaton College women's soccer team suffered its first setback of the season as they were defeated by Colby College 2-1 in double overtime at Elms Field in Norton. Wheaton, who is ranked 23rd in the country and 4th in the New England Region, dropped their record to 10-1 overall with a 2-0 mark in the NEWMAC.

The game-winning goal was scored in the first minute of the second overtime as Colby's Christine O'Donnell (Salem, MA) received a cross from midfielder Stephanie Zegras (Bedford, NY) and then made the left-footed strike over Lyons goalkeeper Emily Boeing (Sudbury, MA/Lincoln-Sudbury H.S.).

Wheaton had the early lead as sophomore Julie Hickey (Weymouth, MA/Weymouth H.S.) drove the ball from the left side of the field to the far post into the right corner of the net. She accepted the pass from freshman playmaker Courtney Linden (Piedmont, CA/Piedmont H.S.) Colby evened the score that half when O'Donnell lobbed her shot past Boeing in the 39th minute.

The Lyons two goals that were given up today doubled their total goals allowed for the season as they are outscoring their opponents 40-4. Wheaton tallied 16 shots on the day while the visiting Camels had 10. The Lyons will return to conference play this Tuesday, October 5, as they will visit Babson College in a NEWMAC game.

BIMBA NAMED NEWMAC PLAYER OF THE WEEK, EARNS NATIONAL RANKING

Wheaton College women's soccer standout Alison Bimba (Etna, NH/Williston-N'Hampton H.S.) has been selected as the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Co-Player of the Week for the second consecutive week. She shared the award after scoring the winning goal in sudden death overtime in a 2-1 win over visiting Keene State College on Tuesday, September 14. Bimba also delivered a goal in a 2-0 home victory over Anna Maria College last Saturday.

Bimba's scoring output this season has placed her in the Division III women's soccer national rankings for points per game and goals per game. She is ranked 17th in the country with an average of 3.33 points per outing (20 points) and 10th with a 1.50 goals per game standing (9 goals) through her first six games.

Including last Tuesday's 4-0 victory over Umass-Dartmouth and today's 4-0 shutout against Norwich University, Bimba has a total of 30 points (3.75 points per game) and 13 goals (1.63 goals per game). She leads the NEWMAC in total points as well as goals scored and she has two game winning goals against Worcester State and Keene State.

The Wheaton women's soccer team (8-0), currently ranked 23rd in the country and 4th in the New England Region, is off to the best start in its 20 year history. The Lyons high-powered offense is also ranked 15th in NCAA Division III scoring with 4.00 gpg (24 goals).

Bimba will lead the Lyons team this Saturday, September 25, as they take to the road against Mt. Holyoke College for their first NEWMAC contest beginning at 1:00 p.m.

WHEATON WOMEN'S SOCCER BLANKS UMASS-DARTMOUTH 4-0

The Wheaton College women's soccer team maintained its undefeated season by beating Umass-Dartmouth on Elms field Tuesday evening. The Lyons raised their record to 7-0 in the non-conference game. The Corsairs dropped their record to 3-2 with the loss.

On the strength of their strong start, the team is currently ranked fourth in New England this week, its highest ranking. Nationally, the Lyons are ranked 23rd, also a first for the team.

Wheaton tallied a goal early in the first half when forward Michelle Crowe (Kensington, CT/Berlin H.S.) found an open net on a centering pass from Alison Bimba (Etna, NH/Williston-N'Hampton H.S.).

Bimba, who was named NEWMAC Co-Player of the Week, scored one goal in each half for a total of two goals and two assists on the day. Sophomore Julie Hickey (Weymouth MA/Weymouth H.S.) also posted a goal for the Lyons. The Corsairs made several scoring attempts, but could not break the Lyons defense anchored by Wheaton goalie Emily Boeing (Sudbury, MA/Lincoln-Sudbury H.S). Her eight saves helped to preserve the Lyons fifth shutout of the season. Wheaton outshot Umass-Dartmouth 30 to 11 and have out scored their opponents 28-1 this season.

WHEATON WOMEN'S SOCCER STAYS UNBEATEN, DEFEATS ANNA MARIA 2-0

The Wheaton College women's soccer team maintained its undefeated season by beating Anna Maria 2-0 on Elms field Saturday afternoon. The Lyons raised their record to 6-0 in the non-conference game. Anna Maria was handed its first loss of the season as they dropped to 3-1-1. Wheaton tallied a goal late in the first half when forward Maija Kaldro (Bar Harbor, ME/Mt. Desert Island H.S.) found an open net on a feed from forward Michelle Crowe (Kensington, CT/Berlin H.S.). The score would stay the same until midway through the second half when forward Alison Bimba (Etna, NH/Williston-N'Hampton H.S.) drove a deflected shot off her left foot to the upper left side of the net, past the opposing goalie. This was all the scoring that Wheaton goalie Emily Boeing (Sudbury, MA/Lincoln-Sudbury H.S) needed to post the win. Her six saves helped to preserve the Lyons fifth shutout of the season. Wheaton outshot Anna Maria 18 to eight and have only allowed one goal this season.

WHEATON WOMEN'S SOCCER OVERCOMES DEFICIT, DEFEATS KEENE ST. IN OVERTIME

The Wheaton College women's soccer team brought its overall record to 5-0 this afternoon, as the Lyons defeated Keene St. in sudden death overtime at Elms Field 2-1 in a non-conference game. With the loss, Keene St. dropped to 1-2 on the season. The Owls struck first early in the opening half as midfielder Jessica Williams (Nashua, NH) took advantage of the assist from forward Suzanne Heinkel (Westfield, NJ). The score remained in Keene St.'s favor for the better half of the game until the Lyons battled back to knot the score. With several opportunities, Wheaton freshman forward Alison Bimba (Etna, NH/Williston-N'Hampton H.S.), who had seven shots on the day, was able to dribble past her opponent and slip a shot just right of goalkeeper Courtney Wade (Barnstead, NH). From that point on, both teams had several chances to finish the game in regulation, but could not get past strong goalkeeper play by Emily Boeing (Sudbury, MA/Lincoln-Sudbury H.S.), who through five games holds a .2 goals against average, or Wade. In overtime, freshman forward Maija Kaldro (Bar Harbor, ME/Mt. Desert Island H.S.) found an opening down the right sideline and made the cross into Bimba, where she delivered the game-winning goal into the top right of the net. Wheaton's 22 shots on goal doubled the 11 shots taken from Keene St.

LYONS WOMEN'S SOCCER TEAM BLANKS LANCERS

September 9, 1999

The Wheaton College women's soccer team saw its overall record rise to 4-0 this afternoon, as the Lyons blanked Worcester St. at Elms Field 4-0 in a non-conference game. Worcester St. fell to 2-2 on the season. The contest was held scoreless for the majority of the first half until freshman Alison Bimba (Etna, NH/Williston-N'Hampton H.S.) connected on a goal from freshman Courtney Linden (Piedmont, CA/Piedmont H.S.). Bimba then opened up the Lyons lead for good as she buried a penalty kick shot 10 minutes into the second half. Bimba has tallied six goals with two assists for 14 points on the season while Linden has scored 2 goals with 5 assists for nine points. Wheaton added a pair of goals from sophomores Kathleen Burke (Quincy, MA/Notre Dame Academy) and Ashley Stewart (New Braintree, MA/Quabbin H.S.) to seal their fourth consecutive shutout. The Lyons have outscored their opponents 20-0 in the four victories this season.
