2000-2001 SUMMARY

After eleven seasons at the helm of the Wheaton women's volleyball program, head coach Gina Loudenburg has left an outstanding mark of success in guiding several of her teams to postseason play. In this her final year, Loudenburg brought in a team where nearly half the players were in their first year of college varsity level competition.

"For the first time in my coaching tenure, we started three to four freshmen at a time," comments Loudenburg, who has accumulated 244 victories with the women's volleyball squad. "If this group stays together and continues to improve each year, the future will be very bright for Wheaton volleyball." With all five newcomers seeing a considerable amount of playing time throughout the year, there certainly is reason for optimism in due time.

Although, in the early parts of this past season the Lyons endured several growing pains, as they dropped their initial seven matches before getting back on track in winning two straight. Following defeats in five of its next seven outings, Wheaton turned in a strong performance at the Eastern Connecticut State University Invitational, as the Lyons reached the championship match by defeating the host Warriors and then Lasell College. But MIT ended up getting the better of Wheaton in the title game in three straight games.

However, the blue and white responded by capturing victories in seven of its final ten regular season matches, including upset wins over NCAA qualifying team Western Connecticut State University and Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) participant Brandeis University. During that stretch, the Lyons also earned three conference wins in qualifying for the eighth and final playoff spot in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Championship. Wheaton then had the good fortune of traveling to Wellesley, Mass. to take on number one Wellesley College in a first round contest. Unfortunately, the Lyons were unable to break Wellesley's streak of 62 straight conference match wins, as they finished their season with a final tally of 13-17 overall and 3-6 in league play.

The legitimate all-around frontrunner for the Wheaton squad for the last four years has been four-time all-conference selection and senior middle hitter, Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.). Campbell, who has set an unparalleled mark of playing in all 544 games of her four-year varsity career, is the current Lyon record holder for blocks in a career and is second all-time in digs and kills. On the year, she ranked in the top five in league play for kills per game (4.435), hitting percentage (.336), digs per game (3.948) and blocks per game (1.061). Simply stated by Loudenburg, "Bonnie ended a terrific career at Wheaton."

In addition to Campbell, Lyon sophomore Melissa Jamin (Cold Springs, NY/Maldane H.S.), who can play either setter or outside hitter, was first on the team in digs per contest at 4.802 and service aces per game at 0.538. Freshmen setters Darcey Vertuca (Boulder, CO/Boulder H.S.) and Kristen Hoffman (Nashua, NH/Nashua H.S.) also enjoyed strong seasons, leading the squad in assists at 6.414 and 4.769 per game, respectively.

2000 WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL POST-SEASON SUMMARY

November 13, 2000

After eleven seasons at the helm of the Wheaton women's volleyball program, head coach Gina Loudenburg has left an outstanding mark of success in guiding several of her teams to postseason play. In this her final year, Loudenburg brought in a team where nearly half the players were in their first year of college varsity level competition.

"For the first time in my coaching tenure, we started three to four freshmen at a time," comments Loudenburg, who has accumulated 244 victories with the women's volleyball squad. "If this group stays together and continues to improve each year, the future will be very bright for Wheaton volleyball." With all five newcomers seeing a considerable amount of playing time throughout the year, there certainly is reason for optimism in due time.

Although, in the early parts of this past season the Lyons endured several growing pains, as they dropped their initial seven matches before getting back on track in winning two straight. Following defeats in five of its next seven outings, Wheaton turned in a strong performance at the Eastern Connecticut State University Invitational, as the Lyons reached the championship match by defeating the host Warriors and then Lasell College. But MIT ended up getting the better of Wheaton in the title game in three straight games.

However, the blue and white responded by capturing victories in seven of its final ten regular season matches, including upset wins over NCAA qualifying team Western Connecticut State University and Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) participant Brandeis University. During that stretch, the Lyons also earned three conference wins in qualifying for the eighth and final playoff spot in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Championship. Wheaton then had the good fortune of traveling to Wellesley, Mass. to take on number one Wellesley College in a first round contest. Unfortunately, the Lyons were unable to break Wellesley's streak of 62 straight conference match wins, as they finished their season with a final tally of 13-17 overall and 3-6 in league play.

The legitimate all-around frontrunner for the Wheaton squad for the last four years has been four-time all-conference selection and senior middle hitter, Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.). Campbell, who has set an unparalleled mark of playing in all 544 games of her four-year varsity career, is the current Lyon record holder for blocks in a career and is second all-time in digs and kills. On the year, she ranked in the top five in league play for kills per game (4.435), hitting percentage (.336), digs per game (3.948) and blocks per game (1.061). Simply stated by Loudenburg, "Bonnie ended a terrific career at Wheaton."

In addition to Campbell, Lyon sophomore Melissa Jamin (Cold Springs, NY/Maldane H.S.), who can play either setter or outside hitter, was first on the team in digs per contest at 4.802 and service aces per game at 0.538. Freshmen setters Darcey Vertuca (Boulder, CO/Boulder H.S.) and Kristen Hoffman (Nashua, NH/Nashua H.S.) also enjoyed strong seasons, leading the squad in assists at 6.414 and 4.769 per game, respectively.

LYONS TOP MOUNT HOLYOKE IN FOUR GAMES

October 28, 2000

The Wheaton College women's volleyball team captured a New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) Tournament berth Saturday afternoon, as the Lyons defeated league rival Mount Holyoke 3-1 (15-3, 15-9, 10-15, 15-11) in Emerson Gymnasium.

Wheaton, winners of three straight and four out of its last five matches, advance to 13-16 overall and 3-6 in conference play, while Mount Holyoke drops to 13-15 and 3-6 in the NEWMAC.

The Lyons opened up the first two games on 6-0 runs, proving to be too large of a margin for visiting Holyoke to overcome.

Wheaton's senior middle hitter Bonnie Capmbell (Stoneham, MA/ Stoneham H.S.) led her team with 24 kills, 18 digs and seven blocks on the afternoon.

Sophomore outside hitter Melissa Jamin (Cold Spring, NY/Haldand H.S.) accounted for 24 digs and seven kills in the contest. Freshman setter Darcey Vertuca (Boulder, CO/Boulder H.S.) posted a career-high 37 assists with seven kills in the win.

Wheaton will continue play Tuesday, October 31st in the quarterfinal round of the conference tournament. The seedings will be determined later today, following the remainder of competition around the NEWMAC.

WELLESLEY SWEEPS WHEATON IN NEWMAC MATCH

October 17, 2000

The Wheaton College women's volleyball team hung tough against nationally-ranked Wellesley College Tuesday night, as the Lyons lost in three games in a New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) match in Emerson Gymnasium.

The defeat snaps Wheaton's three-game winning streak, with the Lyons falling to 9-14 overall and 1-6 in conference play. Wellesley, ranked first in New England, continues its winning ways throughout the region, improving to a perfect 7-0 in league play and 19-5 overall.

In tonight's first game, Wheaton played to a 2-2 tie with Wellesley but couldn't hold on as the visiting squad went on a 13-1 run to capture its first of three wins. The Lyons were competitive in the second and third games, holding late-game leads of 11-8 and 11-9, respectively. However, Wellesley maintained its composure in responding with streaks of 7-0 and 7-1 run in each game to record the clean sweep.

Senior middle hitter Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.) led Wheaton offensively with eight kills while senior outside hitter Melissa Jamin (Cold Spring, NY/Haldane H.S.) contributed with seven kills. Freshman setter Darcey Vertuca (Boulder, CO/Boulder H.S.) added 25 assists in the loss.

The Lyons will step out of NEWMAC competition this weekend to play in the Hall of Fame Tournament on Friday, October 20 and Saturday, October 21.

WHEATON FINISHES A PERFECT 2-0 IN VOLLEYBALL TRI-MATCH; RALLY TO UPSET BRANDEIS, 3-2 WHILE KNOCKING OFF WESTERN CONN, 3-1

October 14, 2000

The Wheaton College women's volleyball team finished a perfect 2-0 on the afternoon, as the Lyons hosted a tri-match featuring regional power, Brandeis University and Western Connecticut State University. Wheaton rallied to upset the Judges, 3-2 in the opening match and then knocked off the Colonials, 3-1 in Emerson Gymnasium.

With the clean sweep, the Lyons improve their overall record to 9-13. Earning a split, Brandeis moves to 18-8 on the season while Western Conn, suffering two losses on the day, drops to 15-12 overall.

Against the Judges, Wheaton held an early 3-1 lead in the first game but would see Brandeis respond with 14 straight points in capturing a decisive 15-3 win. However, the Lyons bounced back with two consecutive narrow victories (15-12, 16-14), as they put the Judges at a deficit heading into the fourth game. Costly mistakes would keep Wheaton from taking any lead in the fourth, as the match went to the decisive final game. In that game, the Lyons jumped out to a 3-0 advantage and never looked back as they held off any potential Brandeis comeback.

Senior Melissa Jamin (Cold Spring, NY/Haldane H.S.) paced Wheaton with a career-best 40 digs to go along with her nine kills. Jamin's dig total ranks as the second-highest mark in school history for most digs in a match. Senior Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.) and sophomore Stacey Mann (Brockton, MA/Brockton H.S.) posted a pair of double-double's with 24 kills, 21 digs and 12 kills, 13 digs respectively. Campbell also contributed five solo blocks in the win. Freshman Darcey Vertuca (Boulder, CO/Boulder H.S.) had a career-high 45 assists with eight kills.

In the final match versus Western Conn, Wheaton posted victories in the first two games, 15-5 and 15-12 before losing the third contest, 15-9. Foreseeing another potential fifth game in the future, the Lyons put the match to rest as they ended the day with a 15-13 triumph over the Colonials. Campbell was among the hitting leaders with 22 kills in addition to her 14 digs and six solo blocks. Jamin added 16 digs, while freshman Kelsey Beytien (Minburn, IA/Adel DeSoto Minburn H.S.) accounted for 9 kills.

The match between WCSU and Brandeis was decided in four games, as the Judges redeemed themselves in collecting a 3-1 win over the Colonials.

On Tuesday, October 17, the Lyons will host nationally-ranked Wellesley College in a New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) contest at 7:00 p.m.

CLARK NIPS WHEATON, 3-2 IN CONFERENCE VOLLEYBALL MATCH

September 26, 2000

The Wheaton College women's volleyball team put forth a valiant effort to even up the match after being down two games early, but ended up losing the tiebreaker game to league opponent Clark in a New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) contest in Emerson Gymnasium.

With the loss, Wheaton falls to 2-9 on the season and 0-4 in conference play, while the Cougars improve their mark to 5-7 overall and 1-3 in the NEWMAC.

The Lyons were led by senior middle hitter Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.), as she posted a double-double with 31 digs and 20 kills. Senior outside hitter Melissa Jamin (Cold Spring, NY/Haldane H.S.) had a career-high 17 kills with 26 digs on the night.

Freshman setter Kristen Hoffman (Nashua, NH/Nashua H.S.) also had a career day, as she accounted for a blistering 60 assists. Freshman middle hitter Kelsey Beytien (Minburn, IA/Adel DeSoto Minburn H.S.) contributed in the loss with 11 kills.

Wheaton takes a break away from conference play this weekend, as the Lyons will travel to Lewiston, Maine where they will participate in the Bates College Invitational Volleyball Tournament on Friday, September 29 and Saturday, September 30.

On Friday, the Wheaton women will face New England Small College Athletic Conference (NESCAC) team Williams College at 6:00 p.m. With a win, the Lyons play the victor of MIT and Bowdoin that night at 8:00 p.m. In a loss, Wheaton would face the loser of those two teams on Saturday morning, beginning at 8:00 a.m.

SMITH SWEEPS WHEATON, 3-0 IN WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL

September 16, 2000

The Wheaton College women's volleyball team lost its second New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC) contest of the year Saturday afternoon to Smith College, 3-0 in Emerson Gymnasium.

For the season, the Lyons fall to 0-5 overall and 0-2 in the NEWMAC, while the Pioneers advance to 1-2 and 1-1 in conference play.

Wheaton's senior middle hitter Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.) led the home squad with 22 kills and 13 digs in the contest. Freshman setter Kristen Hoffman (Nashua, NH/Nashua H.S.) offered 28 assists in the loss and senior outside hitter Melissa Jamin (Cold Spring, NY/Haldane H.S.) accounted for 20 digs.

The Lyons will resume conference play on Tuesday, September 19 at Springfield College. Game time is slated for 7:00 p.m.

2000 WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL PREVIEW

August 21, 2000

Post-season play is important to every coach and every team, but Wheaton's Gina Loudenburg is looking for that extra push as she enters her final season as women's volleyball head coach.

"It would be great to leave this program on a positive note," says Loudenburg, who has posted 230 wins during the last decade and will remain at Wheaton as head softball coach. "I will be happy to go out with my two seniors, but I also hope we can introduce our incoming class to a winning program. My goals have always been the same-to have a team that is competitive and to strive to reach post-season play."

With 10 newcomers joining the team-her biggest recruiting class ever-Loudenburg says "every day is going to be a new adventure." She expects each practice to be competitive and fun, two qualities that have helped her teams reach post-season play in the last eight of 10 years.

Back from a 17-17 team that qualified for the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Tournament are seven returnees for the Lyons. Wheaton, a team which finished sixth in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC), was defeated in the first round of the ECAC's to league rival Springfield College.

This season the Lyons will look for an overall team effort, as they bring to the court more depth and height than any other year. "We are going to attempt to use every player in the offense," comments Loudenburg. "We will attack teams from every position and not just in the middle like we have done in the past."

From that middle slot, Wheaton will look to replace the void left by Neva Metcalf (Fort Collins, CO/Fort Collins H.S.), a four-time America Volleyball Coaches' Association (AVCA) Regional All-American recipient and all-conference honoree, and 1999 New England Women's Volleyball Association (NEWVA) All-New England first team selection. Metcalf graduated with Wheaton's Class of 2000.

Up for the challenge will be senior co-captain and middle blocker, Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.). Campbell, an AVCA Regional All-American selection and NEWVA All-New England honorable mention, led the '99 team in solo blocks per game with 1.211 and hitting percentage at .299.

Wheaton will also rely on sophomores Melissa Jamin (Cold Springs, NY/Maldane H.S.) and Stacey Mann (Brockton, MA/Brockton H.S.). Jamin, a setter and outside hitter, led the Lyons with 5.602 assists per contest and a .973 passing percentage, while Mann, an outside hitter, was second on the team with 3.306 assists per game.

Loudenburg and 12-year assistant coach, Bob Roscoe will look for added leadership from senior co-captain Andrea Martins (Fall River, MA/B.M.C. Durfee H.S.) and first-year player Kristen Hoffman (Nashua, NH). A natural setter who will be counted on as a positional leader on the court, Hoffman will be given a lot of responsibility early on.

"Andrea and Bonnie will complement each other well from a leadership point of view," says Loudenburg. "They have two totally different personalities, yet they will provide two distinct dimensions of leadership both off and on the court."

Other top recruits expected to compete for starting positions for the Lyons will be Dawn Barrett (MA) and Mara Vertuca (Boulder, CO). Barrett comes to Wheaton as an outside hitter, while Vertuca will contribute her talents to the team as a net setter.
