1999-2000 SEASON SUMMARY

Height with talent is certainly a tall order to fill for any coach in Division III New England women's volleyball, as the Wheaton College volleyball squad and head coach Gina Loudenburg assembled the tallest team in Loudenburg's 10 year stint with the program. And the Lyons women had some talent as well, with the 12-member squad qualifying for the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Tournament while maintaining a regional ranking among the top eight teams for the majority of the season.

Wheaton was defeated in the first round contest of the ECAC Championships to Springfield College 3-2, as the team evened its final mark at 17-17, which included a 4-5 standing in one of the toughest conferences in the country in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC). The Lyons carried their season-best 8-4 record (3-0 mark in league play) early on in the season only to face conference foe Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) at home, falling to the New England ranked Engineers, 3-1. Wheaton also played highly touted Springfield College and NCAA quarterfinal round participant and nationally ranked Wellesley College throughout its season.

Coach Loudenburg commented on the team's performance, "Our expectation this year was to qualify for post-season play, which we accomplished. We possessed a healthy mix of veteran players that blended with our dynamic new recruits. The team philosophy for the season was to stress the quality of our athletes and not so much the quantity."

Although the future year will return both quality and quantity for the Lyons, returning 10 of the 12 players for the 2000-01 season, Loudenburg and assistant coach Bob Roscoe, who completed his 11th season with the program, will not be able to return senior standout Neva Metcalf (Fort Collins, CO/Fort Collins H.S.), an America Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Regional All-American recipient and New England Women's Volleyball Association (NEWVA) All-New England First Team selection. Metcalf, a member of the NEWMAC All-Conference Team, is currently in the fourth spot among Division III all-time kill leaders and first all-time in Wheaton volleyball history with 2,084. She surpassed previous fourth-place holder Jennifer Martz (2,068) of Washington University in St. Louis, MO in the final collegiate match of her illustrious career versus Springfield. Metcalf, holder of most of the Lyons season and career records, led her team this year in kills per game with 4.07 kpg and in service aces at .76 per contest.

In addition to losing Metcalf to graduation, the Lyons will have to work to fill the missing gap of senior outside hitter Jill Saxon (Rehoboth, MA/Dighton-Rehoboth H.S.), who in her four year career stands fourth all-time for dig leaders with 1,060 among the Wheaton ranks. Her 515 digs this season surpassed her sister Meg Saxon's career mark of 946. The younger Saxon led the squad in digs per game this year at 4.769, a figure good enough for the third spot in the NEWMAC. She was also second on the team in service aces with .556 per outing.

Top returning players for the Lyons next year will be junior middle blocker Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.). Campbell, an AVCA Regional All-American honoree and NEWVA All-New England honorable mention, led the team in solo blocks per outing with 1.211 and hitting percentage at .299. Wheaton will also turn to last year's top recruits in net setter and outside hitter Melissa Jamin (Cold Springs, NY/Maldane H.S.) and outside hitter Stacey Mann (Brockton, MA/Brockton H.S.). Jamin paced the Lyons with 5.602 assists per contest and a .973 passing percentage, while Mann was second on the team with 3.306 assists per game.

1999 WHEATON WOMEN'S VOLLEYBALL POST-SEASON SUMMARY

November 29, 1999

Height with talent is certainly a tall order to fill for any coach in Division III New England women's volleyball, as the Wheaton College volleyball squad and head coach Gina Loudenburg assembled the tallest team in Loudenburg's 10 year stint with the program. And the Lyon women had some talent as well, with the 12-member squad qualifying for the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Tournament while maintaining a regional ranking among the top eight teams for the majority of the season.

Wheaton was defeated in the first round contest of the ECAC Championships to Springfield College 3-2, as the team evened its final mark at 17-17, which included a 4-5 standing in one of the toughest conferences in the country in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC). The Lyons carried their season-best 8-4 record (3-0 mark in league play) early on in the season only to face conference foe Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) at home, falling to the New England ranked Engineers, 3-1. Wheaton also played highly touted Springfield College and NCAA quarterfinal round participant and nationally ranked Wellesley College throughout its season.

Coach Loudenburg commented on the team's performance, "Our expectation this year was to qualify for post-season play, which we accomplished. We possessed a healthy mix of veteran players that blended with our dynamic new recruits. The team philosophy for the season was to stress the quality of our athletes and not so much the quantity."

Although the future year will return both quality and quantity for the Lyons, returning 10 of the 12 players for the 2000-01 season, Loudenburg and assistant coach Bob Roscoe, who completed his 11th season with the program, will not be able to return senior standout Neva Metcalf (Fort Collins, CO/Fort Collins H.S.), an America Volleyball Coaches Association (AVCA) Regional All-American recipient and New England Women's Volleyball Association (NEWVA) All-New England First Team selection. Metcalf, a member of the NEWMAC All-Conference Team, is currently in the fourth spot among Division III all-time kill leaders and first all-time in Wheaton volleyball history with 2,084. She surpassed previous fourth-place holder Jennifer Martz (2,068) of Washington University in St. Louis, MO in the final collegiate match of her illustrious career versus Springfield. Metcalf, holder of most of the Lyons season and career records, led her team this year in kills per game with 4.07 kpg and in service aces at .76 per contest.

In addition to losing Metcalf to graduation, the Lyons will have to work to fill the missing gap of senior outside hitter Jill Saxon (Rehoboth, MA/Dighton-Rehoboth H.S.), who in her four year career stands fourth all-time for dig leaders with 1,060 among the Wheaton ranks. Her 515 digs this season surpassed her sister Meg Saxon's career mark of 946. The younger Saxon led the squad in digs per game this year at 4.769, a figure good enough for the third spot in the NEWMAC. She was also second on the team in service aces with .556 per outing.

Top returning players for the Lyons next year will be junior middle blocker Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.). Campbell, an AVCA Regional All-American honoree and NEWVA All-New England honorable mention, led the team in solo blocks per outing with 1.211 and hitting percentage at .299. Wheaton will also turn to last year's top recruits in net setter and outside hitter Melissa Jamin (Cold Springs, NY/Maldane H.S.) and outside hitter Stacey Mann (Brockton, MA/Brockton H.S.). Jamin paced the Lyons with 5.602 assists per contest and a .973 passing percentage, while Mann was second on the team with 3.306 assists per game.

METCALF REACHES HITTING MILESTONE IN NCAA DIVISION III VOLLEYBALL, CAMPBELL SURPASSES 1,000 KILL PLATEAU; TANDEM LEADS LYONS VOLLEYBALL TO ECAC TOURNAMENT

November 11, 1999

Wheaton College women's volleyball standout Neva Metcalf (Fort Collins, CO/Fort Collins H.S.) placed herself in the NCAA Division III record books on Tuesday, October 26 at Bates College in Lewiston, ME, as she lifted her career kill total to 2,061, a mark good enough for the fifth position among Division III all-time kill leaders. She surpassed former fifth-place holder Denise Cobb (2,021) of the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. Although Metcalf's four-year career and number-one standing for kills with the Lyons won't be able to touch number one in the country, currently held by Ronda Jo Miller (2,541) of Gallaudet University in Washington, D.C., she is quickly closing in on the fourth spot, owned by Jennifer Martz (2,068) of Washington University in St. Louis, MO.

Metcalf, senior middle hitter and captain for Wheaton, has led the hitting charge for the Lyons this season with a 4.04 kill/game average as well as in service aces at .76 per game, both second in the New England Women's and Men's Athletic Conference (NEWMAC). She also is top five in the conference for blocks per game and digs per game, as her 1.073 b/g earned her a third spot while her 3.61 d/g average is fifth in the conference.

Neva, who has received all-conference honors since her freshman year and New England Region All-America accolades her sophomore year as the team finished 26-11, will be in the running for several post-season awards at the conclusion of this season, including All-NEWMAC, All-New England, Regional All-America and Senior Classic Ballot.

In addition to Metcalf in the Lyons strong middle attack is junior Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.). Campbell, who leads the team in blocks per outing with 1.169 and a hitting percentage at .299, reached a milestone of her own as she exceeded the 1,000 kill mark earlier in the season against Trinity College in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT) Tournament on September 25, 1999. Her present total of 1,246 kills places her among the Wheaton kill leaders at the number-three position all-time, behind Sarah Davenport ('96), who has 1,476, and Metcalf. Campbell also was selected to the All-NEWMAC team last season and received the NEWMAC Rookie of the Year and the Regional All-America awards her freshman season.

Wheaton, the eighth-ranked team in New England, finished its regular season with a 17-16 overall mark and 4-5 in the conference, after falling to league opponent MIT 3-2 on Thursday, November 4 in the quarterfinals round of the conference tournament. The Lyons, who received the number-seven seed in the Eastern College Athletic Conference (ECAC) Championships, will face NEWMAC rival and second-seeded team Springfield College this Friday, November 12 at Bates College in Lewiston, ME, beginning time 8:00 p.m. The Pride defeated Wheaton 3-0 in the final league match of the regular season on Saturday, October 30 in Springfield, MA.

WHEATON (MA) VOLLEYBALL FALLS TO WHEATON (IL), OPENS 1999 SEASON WITH 2-2 MARK AT GORDON INVITATIONAL

The Wheaton College volleyball program was highly anticipating the match-up between the two volleyball teams referred to as Wheaton and proved it in their first game before falling to a strong Crusaders squad 3-1 (17-15, 11-15, 7-15, 9-15) in the Gordon College Volleyball Holiday Inn Invitational. However, the Lyons rebounded to defeat Bates College in a thrilling five-game set (16-14, 11-15, 13-15, 15-11, 16-14) and then went on to sweep invitational host Gordon College (15-8, 16-14, 15-11). In the final match that lasted approximately three hours against the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), Wheaton was defeated in four games (1-15, 12-15, 15-5, 10-15).

Against Wheaton (IL), the Lyons responded to the pressures of an opening match very well by winning the first game outright while only competing with seven players. In addition to the nine players who dressed for Wheaton (MA) on Friday night, the team was without the services of co-captain and senior outside hitter Jill Saxson (Rehoboth, MA/Dighton-Rehoboth H.S.), who suffers from a bruise on her quadricep. In the second game, Wheaton (MA) battled back and forth with the Crusaders as the score was in the Lyons favor 6-5, but then the tide turned quickly as Wheaton (IL) tallied seven straight points and held on for the victory that evened the match at one game each. The Crusaders then carried their momentum into the third game where they jumped out to a quick 9-1 lead. Wheaton (MA) would not recover as the Lyons closed the gap to seven points at 14-7 before losing their second straight game. In the final bout, the result was no different for Wheaton (MA) as they managed to battle to a 9-9 knot before bowing out to the Crusaders' six straight points to close the match. Co-captain and senior middle hitter Neva Metcalf (Fort Collins, CO/Fort Collins H.S.) led the Lyons with 17 kills, while junior middle hitter Bonnie Campbell (Stoneham, MA/Stoneham H.S.) added nine and freshman setter and outside hitter Melissa Jamin (Cold Springs, NY/Maldane H.S.) recorded six with a team-high 15 assists.

In the Bates match, Metcalf and Campbell let the hitting charge for the second consecutive match with 24 and 17 kills, respectively.

Metcalf and Campbell were again the top hitters with 15 and 11 kills, respectively in the win against Gordon. Jamin added 4 kills with a team-best 18 assists. Freshman outside hitter Stacey Mann (Brockton, MA/Brockton H.S.) also contributed to the victory with 12 assists.

In the loss to MIT to close the invitational, Campbell took team kill honors with 14, followed by Metcalf with 10 and Mann with four. Mann also distributed eight assists while Jamin paced the Lyons with 17 sets.
