

HISPANIC STUDIES

(Effective with the Class of 2012 and After)

Minimum courses required: 9

Students interested in the Hispanic Studies major should discuss their plans with department as early as possible. An individualized program of study, based upon the personal preferences and career aspirations of the student, will be designed.

Some requirements can be filled through study abroad in Spain or Latin America, Wheaton's interdisciplinary Programa de Estudios en la Universidad de Cordoba (PRESHCO) and the Program for Mexican Culture and Society in Puebla, Mexico (PMSCP). The department recommends that students pursue a second major or a minor.

Please note that HISP 101 and HISP 102, Basic Spanish, are not open to students who have taken Spanish previously.

Course requirement Semester Taken

ONE of the following courses:

HISP 260: Hispanic World: Introduction to Spain's Social and Cultural History

HISP 280: Hispanic World: Introduction to Latin American Culture

1. _____

TWO 300-level literature courses:

2. _____

3. _____

FIVE additional courses starting with HISP 220 or above:

4. _____

5. _____

6. _____

7. _____

8. _____

9. HISP 400: Senior Seminar _____