

Wheaton 2014: Transforming Lives to Change the World

Vision 2014: Wheaton College develops global citizens prepared to lead in a complex world. Its transformational learning environment prepares graduates to live purposeful lives, be engaged in their communities, be scientifically and technologically literate, and act effectively to promote change.

Milestones 2010	Milestones 2014
1. Student learning outcome measures have been designed to evaluate the impact of the infused and connected curriculum on Wheaton's transformational education.	Wheaton's promise of a transformational liberal arts education is achieved through an innovative curriculum that emphasizes connected and intercultural learning.
2. An integrated approach to fully engaging students in the residential academic community is in place.	Engagement in Wheaton's residential academic community prepares students for purposeful consideration of how actions, values, and beliefs affect the people with whom they interact, and the intercultural communities of which they are a part.
3. Wheaton has developed a prioritized list of investments for facilities and technology that support Vision 2014.	Wheaton's facilities and technological resources responsibly support an integrated, holistic, and transformational liberal arts education.
4. A coordinated cross-functional plan for significantly improving Wheaton's student retention is in place.	Wheaton's value for diversity and inclusive excellence is reflected in its recruitment and retention of students, faculty and staff.
5. A basic framework has been tested to address growth goals.	Wheaton alumnae/i and an expanding circle of friends engage with and support the college through their talents and resources.
