Post-Graduate Year(s) of Service Opportunities

Americorps*VISTA
VISTA members commit to serve full-time for a year at a nonprofit organization or local government agency, working to fight illiteracy, improve health services, create businesses, strengthen community groups, and much more.

Camphill Soltane, Community Co-Worker
Co-workers at Camphill Soltane help to support the students and community residents with disabilities, and contribute towards keeping the community moving ahead, whole, and energized. Training, room and board, basic medical insurance and modest monthly stipends are provided.

Center for California Studies, Capital Fellows Program
The Capital Fellows Programs provide an opportunity to engage in public service and prepare for future careers, while actively contributing to the development and implementation of public policy in California.

City Hall Fellows
Fellows are placed in full-time positions in a single municipal office during their service year.

City Year
City Year unites young people of all backgrounds for a year of full-time service, giving them the skills and opportunities to change the world.

Commonwealth Corps
Corps members will provide direct service, build capacity, and recruit, organize and mobilize additional volunteers, thus building a grassroots movement of volunteers dedicated to service.

Congressional Hunger Center, Bill Emerson National Hunger Fellowship
This year-long leadership development program is designed to train emerging leaders in the fight against hunger in the U.S.

Coro Fellows Program in Public Affairs
The Coro Fellows Program in Public Affairs is a full-time, nine month, graduate-level experiential leadership training program that prepares diverse, intelligent and committed individuals for effective and ethical leadership in the public affairs arena.

El Pomar Fellowship
This two year program provides a hands-on experience that combines on-the-job training with a solid background in leadership theory.
Echoing Green Fellowship
Through the two-year Echoing Green Fellowship program, start-up capital and technical assistance to help new leaders launch their organizations.

Green Corps Environmental Leadership Training Program
One-year, full-time, paid program gives you instruction and experience to launch an organizing and advocacy career. Program includes intensive classroom training, hands-on field experience running urgent environmental and public health campaigns, and placement in permanent leadership positions with leading environmental groups.

Health Corps
Recent college graduates become HealthCorps "Coordinators" for two years and defer medical school or graduate health program studies to peer-mentor as public service.

Herbert Scoville Jr. Peace Fellowship
Supported by a stipend, the Fellows serve as full-time junior staff members at the participating Washington DC based organization of their choice.

Idealist.org
Links to a list of one year service programs.

Musician Corps, Music National Service
MusicianCorps increases youth achievement and leadership by expanding access to music education.

New York City Urban Fellows Program
The Urban Fellows Program is a nine-month fellowship which combines work in Mayoral offices and City agencies with an intensive seminar series that explores current urban issues impacting public policy.

New Sector Residency in Social Enterprise (RISE)
RISE gives recent college graduates the opportunity to lead a strategic initiative for a Boston nonprofit organization over the course of one year.

Public Allies
The Ally program is a full-time paid apprenticeship in a nonprofit organization in your community where you serve four days per week to create, improve and expand services that address diverse issues, including youth development, education, public health, economic development and the environment.
Philly Fellows
Philly Fellows is a year-long post-graduate fellowship program which offers top graduates of Philadelphia-area colleges and universities opportunities to engage in the city's vibrant neighborhoods and diverse non-profit agencies.

Student Conservation Association Conservation Corps
Spend 3-10 months living and working with others on critical conservation projects such as restoring wilderness, building sustainable communities, and providing environmental education.

U.S. PIRG Fellowships
The goal of the U.S. PIRG Fellowship Program is to develop recent college graduates into leaders in the movement for positive social change. Through the program, fellows get the chance to work on issues from reforming health care to securing America’s financial future. Fellows gain the hands-on experience it takes to organize public support. Fellows build expertise on an important issue, such as transportation solutions, health care reform, or toxic pollution cleanup. Fellows conduct research, craft policy solutions, act as a spokesperson to the media, build coalitions, write grants, and recruit activists and members.

White House Fellows
White House Fellowships offer exceptional young men and women first-hand experience working at the highest levels of the federal government. Selected individuals typically spend a year working as a full-time, paid Fellow to senior White House Staff, Cabinet Secretaries and other top-ranking government officials. Fellows also participate in an education program consisting of roundtable discussions with renowned leaders from the private and public sectors, and trips to study U.S. policy in action both domestically and internationally. Fellowships are awarded on a strictly non-partisan basis.

Youth Service Opportunities Project (YSOP) Fellows Program
The Fellows Program continues YSOP's mission of engaging young people in direct service, while encouraging their development as the future leaders of non-profit organization. Fellows lead middle school, high school and college students on our day-long, overnight and week-long service-learning programs. Fellows help organize and prepare for all aspects of our programs, including contacting guest speakers, reviewing program evaluations and contacting upcoming program participants. Fellows help with the management of our organization. Responsibilities may include outreach, writing newsletters and publicity, website management, and working with YSOP’s Board of Directors.