

MEDIEVAL AND RENAISSANCE STUDIES MINOR

Minimum Courses Required: 5 – Courses for the minor must come from at least THREE different departments.

Coordinators: Michael Drout, English and Evie Staudinger, Art History

The following list of courses may be augmented periodically by special courses or seminars appropriate to the minor. Please consult the schedule of classes for offerings under 298 or 398.

Many of the upper-level courses listed below, particularly those in the Foreign Languages and Literature departments, require prerequisites. Students should plan accordingly.

Requirements	Semester Taken
---------------------	-----------------------

FIVE courses from:

Art History:

Arth 231: Italian Medieval Art and Culture	Arth 253: Castles and Cathedrals
Arth 232: Art and Arch. of the 14 th and 15 th Cent. in Italy	Arth 352: Early Medieval Art and Culture
Arth 241: Northern Renaissance Painting, 1400-1500

Classics:

Clas 258/358: Tales of Troy
Advanced Latin (Readings in Medieval Latin may be arranged independently with the Classics department)

English:

Eng 207: Medieval Literature: Beowulf & others	Eng 306: Chaucer
Eng 208: Anglo-Saxon Literature	Eng 309: Shakespeare & the Performance of Cultures
Eng 273: Malcontents, Monarchy & Revenge in Early Modern Drama	Eng 310: Shakespeare & the Company He Keeps
	Eng 313: Early Modern English Poetry

History:

Hist 112: History of Europe, 1000-1700 CE	Hist 343: Late Antiquity: Transformation & Migration
Hist 253: Popular Rel & Devotion in the Middle Ages	Hist 344: Sex, Gender and the Body in the Medieval World
Hist 314: Renaissance, Reformation & Revolution: Europe 1350 –1650

Italian Studies:

Itas 305: Infernos, Brothels and Courts

Music:

Musc 209: Western Music I: Medieval, Renaissance, Baroque

Religion:

Rel 204: Scripture in Judaism, Christianity and Islam
Rel 316: Islam: Faith and Practice
Rel 322: Judaism: Faith and Practice

(Note: Rel 109: Introduction to the Hebrew Bible and Rel 110: Literature of the New Testament are strongly recommended for students interested in Medieval and Renaissance studies but they DO NOT count toward the minor.)

Russian:

Russ 101: Russian Folklore

1.
2.
3.
4.

ONE 300-level course from above:

5.
----	--	--