The Honorary Degrees

Dennis M. Hanno Doctor of Laws

Good farmers contribute to the welfare of society, writer and environmental activist Wendell Berry has said. And you, Dennis Hanno, are an incredibly productive farmer, when it comes to cultivating human potential. Your efforts to produce possibilities for the growth of others, here on the Wheaton campus and around the world, have resulted in an abundant yield of lives transformed through innovation and optimism.

You grew up on a farm in upstate New York, learning important lessons about hard work, attention to details and the importance of community. After earning a bachelor's degree in accounting from the University of Notre Dame, you started a successful career and a family with your beloved wife, Sue. Upon earning a Ph.D. in accounting from the University of Massachusetts at Amherst, you chose to work in a new field: higher education, first as a professor and then as an administrator and leader.

As Wheaton's eighth president, you nurtured the strengths of this community, making experiential learning accessible to every student, seeding new programs in social innovation and entrepreneurship, and enhancing the campus itself. Because of your attention, the college has grown—in enrollment, in the generous support of alumni and friends, and in reputation as an institution on the move.

The roots of all these successes stem from your energy, your optimism and your deep commitment to transforming lives through learning and leadership. That same drive compelled you to establish the entrepreneurship-focused nonprofit IDEA4Africa, which inspires and supports leaders and changemakers in Africa and here in the United States.

Your dedication to helping others and to strengthening communities is inspiring. It is our great pleasure to present you, Dennis Hanno, with this honorary Doctor of Laws.

Momo Nagano '47 Doctor of Fine Arts

An artist is one who remains constantly in search of possibility. Momo Nagano, Class of 1947, you were a true artist who showed us through great determination that it is possible to create the destiny we desire—no matter the circumstances.

You and your family were taken from your California home and incarcerated in the Manzanar concentration camp in violation of your Constitutional rights during World War II, along with thousands of other Japanese Americans. However, you did not let confinement hold captive your courage, your joy or your desire to transform adversity into a fulfilling life.

With government permission, you left the camp to attend Wheaton. Each summer you relinquished your freedom and returned to the camp. Yet you persisted in pursuit of your education and successfully earned a bachelor's degree in history.

After Wheaton, you discovered your true calling in the art studio, in galleries and in classrooms as a textile artist weaving tapestries, leading workshops and presenting lectures interlaced with the truth of your heritage and personal history.

Your work and community engagement have garnered many honors. They include a Wheaton Alumni Achievement Award in 2007; a grant from the California Civil Liberties Public Education Program; and inclusion in the California State Senate contemporary art collection and the permanent collection of the Japanese American National Museum, where your tapestry “American Families” was exhibited.

Your talent also lives on in corporate and private collections, and in the books that feature you as an artist. Your story has been generously shared in the Los Angeles Times, among many other media outlets.

Looking at your life, we see everlasting lessons about resilience and the remarkable strength of the human spirit to endure. Momo Nagano, for encouraging us, by example, to live beyond limitations imposed by others, we proudly posthumously award you with this honorary Doctor of Fine Arts.

Deo "Deo" Niyizonkiza Doctor of Laws

Life takes you to unexpected places, but love brings you home. We see the power of that journey in your life and visionary leadership, Deo "Deo" Niyizonkiza. You arrived in New York City after fleeing war and violence in your native Burundi, in East Africa. Your heartfelt desire to provide care for those who need it most led you back home.

In the United States, you earned bachelor's degrees in biochemistry and philosophy, attended Harvard School of Public Health and studied at Dartmouth Medical School. With your knowledge and skills, and support from friends, you established Village Health Works in Kigutu, Burundi, in December 2007.

Through Village Health Works, you instill pride and dignity in your community. It is here that Burundians discover a place of calm and healing in a country that has endured many years of turmoil. Thanks to your leadership, the center now employs 700 people and serves approximately 200,000. Your nonprofit also operates a school to inspire young minds and a teaching hospital to educate the next generation of health care professionals.

You also serve as a key voice and advocate for global health and international development as a lecturer. You have been honored for your compassion, courage and impact as a U.S. immigrant by many organizations and individuals, including the Carnegie Corporation of New York, People to People International, Women's Refugee Commission and the Dalai Lama.

Your personal story is an inspiration to many. Author Tracy Kidder wrote of your journey in the best-selling book Strength in What Remains. In addition, in 2014, Wheaton College recognized you with the Otis Social Justice Award for your commitment to the values of community, integrity, diversity and service.

For strengthening communities and providing access to quality, equitable care, it is our great pleasure to present you, Deo "Deo" Niyizonkiza, with this honorary Doctor of Laws.

Wheaton Hymn

Words by J. Edgar Park

Music by Herbert J. Jenny

We praise Thee, Lord, whose life— we are, For those who ear - ly
They build - ed bet - ter than— they knew; They trust - ed where they
A - round us dream our tow'rs and spires, And on our col - lege
A hun - dred years pass like— a dream, Yet ear - ly found - ers heard— Thy call, Seek - ing a rich - er life— from far, could— not see; They heard the sound— of voic - es new, hearth - stone cast Red ash - es of— a hun - dred fires still— are we, Whose works are great - er than— they seem,

Lay - ing the dear - est stones— of all, In the grey dawn of Sing - ing of all the years— to be; And for both man and
Of all our im - me - mo - ri - al past Still glow in warm and Be - cause of what we yet— shall be In the bright noon of oth - er days, Mid oth - er men and oth - er ways.

wom - an - kind An in - ner tem - ple of— the mind.
friend - ly rays, Lit by the thoughts of col - lege days.
oth - er days, Mid oth - er souls and oth - er ways.

Wheaton Anthem

A Song for the Sesquicentennial 1984

Words and music by Carlton T. Russell

We lift our voic - es, let — them ring, With grate - ful — glad - ness
We sing of those who cared — to sow The plen - ti - ful har - vest
We hear their sto - ry: strong — and few, They worked and — prayed and Liv - ing the dream and dream - ing to share With men our — found - ers'
So Whea - ton's ban - ner, raise it un - furled To wom - en and men through - let — us sing. Join - ing with oth - ers far and — near, With that — we know, See - ing a - bove ho - ri - zons — then A planned — a - new Through man - y toils a dream to — save; A vi - sion rare, Risk - ing the storm while chart - ing a - new, We out — the world; To the op - pressed of ev - 'ry — race A old and young we gath - er here To cel - e - brate the wom - an's life be - yond — their ken. They strove for free - dom full - er life to us — they gave. We sing their prais - es; jour - ney toward this bright - er view As men and wom - en, word of hope, a gift — of grace. Not for our - selves our gift they gave, Our found - ers — with their vi - sion brave.

of the mind, A bright new — world for wom - an - kind.
may we too A - bun - dant - ly live in all — we do.
e - qual, give U - nique gifts of self that all — may live.
bless - ings be, But all hu - man - kind, 'til all — are free.
