The Honorary Degrees

Ann Macy Beha Doctor of Humane Letters

The buildings in which we learn and live support our intellectual growth, enhance our productivity and nourish our spirit as we pursue hopes and dreams. Ann Macy Beha, as an internationally renowned founder of your own architectural firm, you have created and reimaged many of these spaces all over the world.

Through detailed planning, open-minded collaboration and innovative design, you have demonstrated the power of architecture to shape and support communities, education and the arts for more than 45 years. And you have done so by honoring tradition while making room for transformation.

Your award-winning imprint is seen on the U.S. embassies in Paris and Athens; the Smithsonian; and in many cultural, community-based and educational projects throughout the United States, including at Harvard, Yale, and MIT, where you earned your master's degree in architecture. The New England Conservatory of Music, the Boston Athenaeum and Boston Symphony Hall also showcase your work.

When you began your firm, yours was one of few women-owned practices. However, you did not solely create opportunities for yourself, you opened the door wide for others. And you have continued to be a strong advocate for leadership, equity and inclusion in the design and construction fields.

You also are broadly sharing your knowledge and passion with the next generation as a distinguished visiting professor at Yale. In a media interview, you noted that what brings you the most joy is collaborating with teams and clients, and advocating for architecture that serves, inspires and reflects its stakeholders and community.

Ann Macy Beha, you have served your clients and communities well as you have created positive change through design and building. It brings us great joy to present you with this honorary Doctor of Humane Letters.

Keith J. Peden
Doctor of Laws

The power of education relies on a deeply-rooted belief in the human capacity for growth and change. It is the conviction that each person possesses both the ingredients for individual success and the ability to contribute to the greater good. In your steadfast support for an inclusive and transformative vision of higher education, Keith Peden, we see an unwavering dedication to human potential.

In your professional career, you guided major corporations in recruiting and stewarding that most essential of resources—people. You served as a senior leader in several international organizations, including Raytheon, where you oversaw efforts to design, develop and implement programs that contributed to its ranking as one of the top 15 companies in the world for developing leaders. As senior vice president and member of the operating committee, you championed the idea that lifelong learning and nurturing individual capabilities leads to collective advancement.

You also acted on that belief to help others. Despite having no prior connection to Wheaton, you served 15 years on our Board of Trustees, with distinction, dedication and generosity. Your commitment to promoting learning and opportunity nurtured Wheaton's efforts to promote diversity and inclusion initiatives, and you bolstered the college's focus on experiential learning and entrepreneurship. Countless lives have been, and will continue to be, enriched by your work at Wheaton, at the Wentworth Institute of Technology, and as a member of the Massachusetts Board of Higher Education.

We are deeply grateful for your dedication to helping individuals and organizations realize their full potential. It is our great pleasure to present you, Keith Peden, with this honorary Doctor of Laws.

Carlotta Gordon Miles '59, M.D.
Doctor of Science

There is no greater frontier than the inner workings of the mind. You, Dr. Carlotta Gordon Miles, have journeyed deep into this realm as a psychiatrist and psychoanalyst for more than 50 years. Your expertise, compassionate care and guidance in resolving conflict have made a great impact on the well-being of individuals, as well as on our connected society.

You began your journey studying the sciences at Wheaton, a foundational experience. After graduating from Howard University College of Medicine, you opened your own practice and established yourself as a go-to expert on the psychological development of people of all ages.

As an internationally known speaker, writer and consultant, you have amplified the importance of mental health awareness. The justice system, school authorities and employers have relied on your insight in custody cases, child assessments for school placement and adult assessments for work.

Your list of accomplishments testifies to the impact and influence of your work. To name a few, you received the Reginald S. Lourie Award for your work in child development and education; you were elected Distinguished Life Fellow of the American Psychiatric Association for helping establish a psychiatric presence in independent schools nationwide; and you earned recognition in Who's Who of American Women.

Throughout your career, Wheaton has remained a cherished part of your personal community. The camaraderie you said you felt as a member of the Wheatones and the long-lasting friendships formed as an undergraduate have continued to nurture you and inspire your deep engagement as an alumna.

For your extraordinary work improving lives as a practitioner and educator in the field of psychiatry, and for your continued commitment to your alma mater, it is our great pleasure to present you, Dr. Carlotta Gordon Miles, with this honorary Doctor of Science.

Wheaton Hymn

Words by J. Edgar Park

Music by Herbert J. Jenny

We praise Thee, Lord, whose life— we are, For those who ear - ly
They build - ed bet - ter than— they knew; They trust - ed where they
A - round us dream our tow'rs and spires, And on our col - lege
A hun - dred years pass like— a dream, Yet ear - ly found - ers heard— Thy call, Seek - ing a rich - er life— from far, could— not see; They heard the sound— of voic - es new, hearth - stone cast Red ash - es of— a hun - dred fires still— are we, Whose works are great - er than— they seem,

Lay - ing the dear - est stones— of all, In the grey dawn of Sing - ing of all the years— to be; And for both man and
Of all our im - me - mo - ri - al past Still glow in warm and Be - cause of what we yet— shall be In the bright noon of oth - er days, Mid oth - er men and oth - er ways.

wom - an - kind An in - ner tem - ple of— the mind.
friend - ly rays, Lit by the thoughts of col - lege days.
oth - er days, Mid oth - er souls and oth - er ways.

Wheaton Anthem

A Song for the Sesquicentennial 1984

Words and music by Carlton T. Russell

We lift our voic - es, let — them ring, With grate - ful — glad - ness
We sing of those who cared — to sow The plen - ti - ful har - vest
We hear their sto - ry: strong — and few, They worked and — prayed and Liv - ing the dream and dream - ing to share With men our — found - ers'
So Whea - ton's ban - ner, raise it un - furled To wom - en and men through - let — us sing. Join - ing with oth - ers far and — near, With that — we know, See - ing a - bove ho - ri - zons — then A planned — a - new Through man - y toils a dream to — save; A vi - sion rare, Risk - ing the storm while chart - ing a - new, We out — the world; To the op - pressed of ev - 'ry — race A old and young we gath - er here To cel - e - brate the wom - an's life be - yond — their ken. They strove for free - dom full - er life to us — they gave. We sing their prais - es; jour - ney toward this bright - er view As men and wom - en, word of hope, a gift — of grace. Not for our - selves our gift they gave, Our found - ers — with their vi - sion brave.

of the mind, A bright new — world for wom - an - kind.
may we too A - bun - dant - ly live in all — we do.
e - qual, give U - nique gifts of self that all — may live.
bless - ings be, But all hu - man - kind, 'til all — are free.
