The Honorary Degrees

Jabari Asim Honorary Doctor of Letters

“Pay attention. Be astonished. Tell about it.” Jabari Asim, you have quoted those lines from Mary Oliver’s poem “Sometimes” as a job description. As an author, an educator, and a cultural critic, you embody those principles. You demonstrate the power of careful observation, critical analysis and captivating storytelling that illuminates the human experience, in its glories and pains, victories and failures.

You built the foundation of your writing career in journalism, from contributor to the St. Louis American, to a columnist and editor for The Washington Post and editor-in-chief of The Crisis, the magazine founded by W.E.B. DuBois. Your novels, essays, poems and plays illuminate the experience of black and brown people. Over 25 books, from the critical analysis of The N Word and the power of the novel Yonder to the giddy joy of Whose Toes Are Those?, you show us the world you see in writing that speaks to scholars and students, adults and children.

A Guggenheim Fellow and the winner of a Pushcart Prize, you share your gifts as a teacher. At Emerson College, where you are the Distinguished Professor of Multidisciplinary Letters and the Elma Lewis Distinguished Fellow in Social Justice, you pass on all that you have learned about the craft of writing and the art of living an examined life.

When you speak of teaching students, you often tell stories about the encouragement that you received as a student from established writers, including poet Gwendolyn Brooks and novelist and professor Leon Forrest. Those anecdotes demonstrate your talent for capturing details and crafting narratives that entertain and enlighten. They also reveal the generosity of your spirit.

We are deeply grateful for your dedication to paying attention to life, sifting through the details of experience to make meaning and then telling us about what you have learned. It is our honor to present you, Jabari Asim, with this honorary Doctor of Letters.

Georgia Wall Gogel '71 Honorary Doctor of Humane Letters

The educator Rita Pierson once said: “Every child deserves a champion; an adult who will never give up on them.” For thousands of children, Georgia Wall Gogel '71, you are that champion, creating new possibilities for children whose lives have been constrained by cruel circumstances.

After graduating from Wheaton and from Northeastern University's law school, you built a career in real estate law, earned partnership in two major firms, and worked on complex projects, such as the redevelopment of Manhattan's South Street Seaport.

When you stepped away from the unrelenting pace of that career, you applied your considerable skills to benefit others. As trustee and board chair of Graham Windham for more than three decades, you helped guide and transform one of the nation's oldest child welfare organizations in its mission to ensure that children in foster care and families impacted by poverty have the support, stability and opportunity they need to thrive.

A notable example of your leadership impact is the agency's incredibly successful coaching model for teens and young adults in foster care. With critical support from you and your husband, Don, the program Graham Slam has directly counseled more than 1,200 young people through high school and into young adulthood. It now serves as a model for dozens of organizations, and New York City is investing public resources to amplify this vital and successful work.

Your commitment to opening doors for young people has found expression in other causes as well, including the Bronxville public schools, the establishment of the Roundup River Ranch and scholarship support to accelerate the growth of and access to Wheaton's nursing program. Through your commitment and dedication to social justice, you demonstrate the myriad ways that personal leadership and philanthropy contribute to the common good.

We are deeply grateful for your enduring commitment to transforming our world and for your indelible impact on the lives of youth, families and communities. It is our honor to present you, Georgia Wall Gogel, with this honorary Doctor of Humane Letters.

Wheaton Hymn

Words by J. Edgar Park

Music by Herbert J. Jenny

We praise Thee, Lord, whose life— we are, For those who ear - ly
They build - ed bet - ter than— they knew; They trust - ed where they
A - round us dream our tow'rs and spires, And on our col - lege
A hun - dred years pass like— a dream, Yet ear - ly found - ers heard— Thy call, Seek - ing a rich - er life— from far, could— not see; They heard the sound— of voic - es new,

hearth - stone cast Red ash - es of— a hun - dred fires still— are we, Whose works are great - er than— they seem,

Lay - ing the dear - est stones— of all, In the grey dawn of Sing - ing of all the years— to be; And for both man and
Of all our im - me - mo - ri - al past Still glow in warm and Be - cause of what we yet— shall be In the bright noon of oth - er days, Mid oth - er men and oth - er ways.

wom - an - kind An in - ner tem - ple of— the mind.
friend - ly rays, Lit by the thoughts of col - lege days.
oth - er days, Mid oth - er souls and oth - er ways.

Wheaton Anthem

A Song for the Sesquicentennial 1984

Words and music by Carlton T. Russell

We lift our voic - es, let — them ring, With grate - ful — glad - ness
We sing of those who cared — to sow The plen - ti - ful har - vest
We hear their sto - ry: strong — and few, They worked and — prayed and Liv - ing the dream and dream - ing to share With men our — found - ers'
So Whea - ton's ban - ner, raise it un - furled To wom - en and men through - let — us sing. Join - ing with oth - ers far and — near, With that — we know, See - ing a - bove ho - ri - zons — then A planned — a - new Through man - y toils a dream to — save; A vi - sion rare, Risk - ing the storm while chart - ing a - new, We out — the world; To the op - pressed of ev - 'ry — race A old and young we gath - er here To cel - e - brate the wom - an's life be - yond — their ken. They strove for free - dom full - er life to us — they gave. We sing their prais - es;

jour - ney toward this bright - er view As men and wom - en, word of hope, a gift — of grace. Not for our - selves our gift they gave, Our found - ers — with their vi - sion brave.

of the mind, A bright new — world for wom - an - kind.
may we too A - bun - dant - ly live in all — we do.
e - qual, give U - nique gifts of self that all — may live.
bless - ings be, But all hu - man - kind, 'til all — are free.
